Dealing with Dictators

The United States, Hungary, and East Central Europe, 1942-1989

LASZLO BORHI

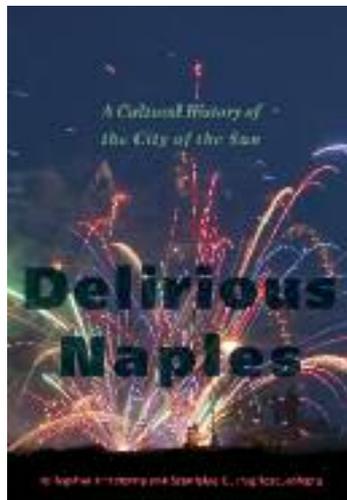

TRANSLATED BY JASON VINCZ

October 2017 562pp

9780253033710 NIP £27.99

Indiana University Press

Explores America's efforts to make the dictatorships of Eastern Europe less tyrannical and more responsive to the country's international interests during the Cold War era. US policies included a mix of economic and psychological warfare, subversion, cultural and economic penetration, and coercive diplomacy. Through careful examination of American and Hungarian sources, László Borhi assesses why some policies toward Hungary achieved their goals while others were not successful. The story of the process by which the transition from Soviet satellite to independent state occurred in Hungary sheds light on the dynamics of systemic change in international politics at the end of the Cold War.

Delirious Naples

A Cultural History of the City of the Sun

EDITED BY PELLEGRINO D'ACIERNO & STANISLAO G. PUGLIESE

July 2018 288pp

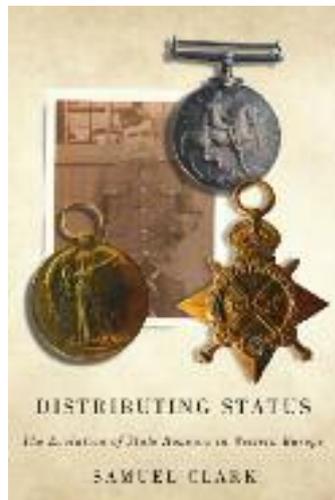

30 color illus., 28 b&w illus.

9780823279999 PB £27.99

9780823279982 HB £100.00

Fordham University Press

Naples is a mysterious metropolis: it is an enigma to outsiders, and also to the Neapolitans themselves. Its very impenetrability is what makes it so deliriously and irresistibly attractive. The essays attempt to give some hints to the answer of the enigma, without parsing it into neat scholastic formulas. In doing this, the book will be an important means of opening Naples to students, scholars and members of the community at large who are engaged in "identity-work." A primary goal has been to establish a dialogue with leading Neapolitan intellectuals and artists, and, ultimately, ensure that the "deliriously Neapolitan" dance continues.

Distributing Status

The Evolution of State Honours in Western Europe

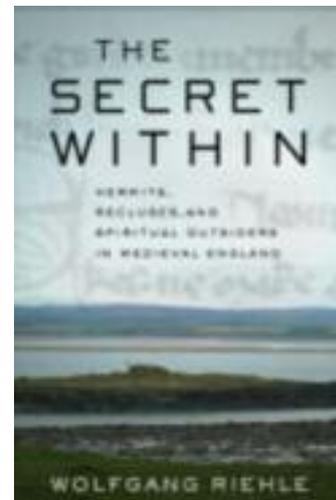

SAMUEL CLARK

June 2018 536pp

9780773546011 NIP £27.99

McGill-Queen's University Press

Presents a comprehensive explanation of the origins and evolution of state honours in the British Isles, France, and the Low Countries. Examining cultural, social, and political changes that led to the massive growth in state honours and shaped their characteristics, Clark also demonstrates their functions as instruments of cultural, collective, disciplinary, and status power. Clark supports his conclusions with a cross-cultural analysis of twenty societies. Lucid and logical, the book explicates an important historical change in Western Europe while at the same time contributing to several bodies of sociological literature, including evolutionary theory, theories of collective action, writings on discipline in modern societies, and studies of status processes.

The Secret Within

Hermits, Recluses, and Spiritual Outsiders in Medieval England

WOLFGANG RIEHLE

TRANSLATED BY

CHARITY SCOTT-STOKES

May 2018 448pp

16 b&w halftones

9781501725166 NIP £23.99

Cornell University Press

Offers the first comprehensive history of English medieval mysticism in decades. Covering the twelfth to fifteenth centuries, Riehle grounds his narrative in the broader spiritual landscape of the Middle Ages, pointing out both prior influences dating back to Late Antiquity and corresponding developments in mysticism and theology on the Continent. He discusses the problem of possible differences between male and female spirituality and the movement of popularizing mysticism in the late Middle Ages.

Risen from Ruins

The Cultural Politics of Rebuilding East Berlin
PAUL STANGL
April 2018 368pp
9781503603202 HB £52.00
Stanford Studies on Central and Eastern Europe
Stanford University Press
Examines the cultural politics of the rebuilding of East Berlin from World War II until the Berlin Wall, combining political analysis with spatial and architectural history to examine how the political agenda of East German elites and the ruling Socialist Unity Party played out in the built environment.

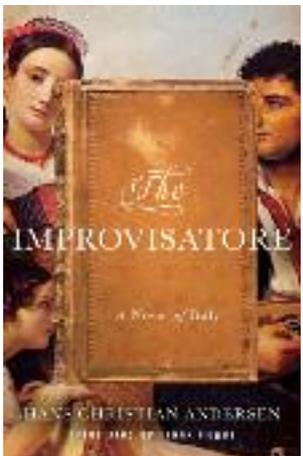

Speaking of Slavery

Color, Ethnicity, and Human Bondage in Italy
STEVEN A. EPSTEIN
May 2018 240pp
1 color plate
9781501725128 NIP £19.99
Cornell University Press
In this first history of slavery in Italy, Epstein shows that the ways Italians process ideas of race and labor are affected by the language used in medieval Italy to sustain a system of slavery. For Epstein, language is crucial to understanding slavery, preserving the hidden conditions of that institution.

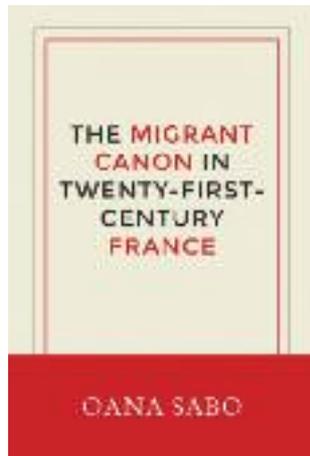

The Experimental Imagination

Literary Knowledge and Science in the British Enlightenment
TITA CHICO
June 2018 280pp
9781503605442 HB £48.00
Stanford University Press
Challenging the "two cultures" debate, this book tells the story of how literariness came to be distinguished from its epistemological sibling, science, as a source of truth about the natural and social worlds in the British Enlightenment. Chico shows that early science relied on literary knowledge to present its findings.

The Improvisatore

A Novel of Italy
HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN
TRANSLATED BY FRANK HUGUS
May 2018 368pp
9781517903978 PB £23.99
9781517903961 HB £96.00
University Of Minnesota Press
Published to great acclaim in 1835, Hans Christian Andersen's debut novel, The Improvisatore, initially eclipsed his fairy tales, which first appeared in the same year. Andersen, the captivating teller of enchanted tales, is very much in evidence in this classic Bildungsroman inspired by his earlier travels.
