New Titles Spring/Summer 2018

this season's highlights

America's Jails

The Search for Human Dignity in an Age of Mass Incarceration

DEREK JEFFREYS

June 2018 256pp

9781479814824 PB £21.99

9781479838622 HB £71.00

Alternative Criminology

New York University Press

Draws on sociology, philosophy, history, and Jeffrey's personal experience volunteering in jails and prisons, to provide an understanding of jail experience from the inmates' perspective, focusing on the stigma that surrounds incarceration. Using his research at Cook County Jail, the nation's largest single-site jail, Jeffreys attests that jail inmates possess an inherent dignity that should govern how we treat them. Ultimately, fundamental changes in the U.S. jail system are necessary and this book provides specific policy recommendations for changing its poor conditions.

Complexity's Embrace

The International Law Implications of Brexit

EDITED BY OONAGH E. FITZGERALD & EVA LEIN

March 2018 256pp

9781928096634 PB £36.00

9781928096627 HB £88.00

McGill-Queen's University Press

After decades of strengthening European integration and independence, Brexit necessitates a deep understanding of its international law implications on both sides of the English Channel. In this volume, international law practitioners and academics move beyond the sensationalist rhetoric of the Brexiters to explain the diverse legal challenges that need to be addressed. The authors in this volume articulate, with unvarnished clarity, the international law implications of Brexit, providing policy makers, commentators, the legal community, and civil society with critical information they need to participate in negotiating their future within or outside Europe.

Putting Trials on Trial

Sexual Assault and the Failure of the Legal Profession

ELAINE CRAIG

March 2018 328pp

9780773552777 HB £27.99

McGill-Queen's University Press

Provides an even-handed account of how the legal profession unnecessarily – and sometimes unlawfully – contributes to the trauma and re-victimization experienced by those who testify as sexual assault complainants. This book demonstrates that – despite prominent contestations – complainants are regularly subjected to abusive, humiliating, and discriminatory treatment when they turn to the law to respond to sexual violations. Gathering conclusive evidence, Craig makes serious, substantiated and necessary claims about the ethical and cultural failures of the Canadian legal profession.

Wildlife Crime

From Theory to Practice

WILLIAM D. MORETO

July 2018 330pp

9781439914724 PB £29.99

9781439914717 HB £83.00

Temple University Press

Examines topical issues from extinction to trafficking in order to understand the ecological, economic, political, and social consequences of these crimes. Drawing from theoretical perspectives, empirical and methodological developments, and on-the-ground experiences, this volume looks at how conservationists and law enforcement grapple with environmental crimes and the profitable market for illegal trade. Chapters cover criminological perspectives on species poaching, unregulated fishing, the trading of ivory and rhino horns, the adoption of conservation technologies, and ranger workplaces and conditions. The book includes firsthand experiences and research from across the globe.

Dangerous Leaders

How and Why Lawyers Must Be Taught to Lead

ANTHONY C. THOMPSON

August 2018 216pp

9780804799256 HB £27.99

Stanford University Press

Exposes the risks and results of leaving lawyers unprepared to lead. This book provides leadership tools and models to build a better foundation of leadership acumen. Thompson draws from his fifteen years of experience for Fortune 100 companies and his experience as a law professor to chart a path forward for better leadership instruction.

Gay Priori

A Queer Critical Legal Studies Approach to Law Reform

LIBBY ADLER

April 2018 288pp

9780822371496 PB £20.99

9780822371182 HB £80.00

Duke University Press

Offers a comprehensive critique of mainstream LGBT legal agendas in the United States and a new direction for LGBT law reform. Adler shows how LGBT equal rights discourse drives legal advocates toward a narrow array of reform objectives—namely, same-sex marriage, antidiscrimination protections, and hate crimes statutes.

How to Be Sort of Happy in Law School

KATHRYNE M. YOUNG

August 2018 280pp

9780804799768 PB £15.99

Stanford University Press

Smart, compelling, and highly readable. Combining her own observations and experiences with the results of her study and the latest sociological research on law schools, Young offers a very different take from previous books about law school survival.

Letters to the Contrary

MARK GOODALE

FOREWORD BY SAMUEL MOYN

April 2018 392pp

9781503605343 PB £21.99

9780804799003 HB £72.00

Stanford Studies in Human Rights
Stanford University Press

Uncovers a record filled with responses that were omitted, polite refusals to respond, and outright rejections of the universal human rights ideal. This volume collects these neglected survey responses, including letters by T. S. Eliot, Gandhi, Auden, and more.

Making Habeas Work

A Legal History

ERIC M. FREEDMAN

June 2018 208pp

9781479870974 HB £36.00

New York University Press

Examining primary sources from colonial and early national periods, Freedman shows how the writ of habeas corpus has been just one part of an intricate machinery for securing freedom under law, and explores its implications for some of today's most pressing problems including terrorism, Brexit, and domestic violence.

Multiracials and Civil Rights

Mixed-Race Stories of Discrimination

TANYA KATERÍ HERNÁNDEZ

August 2018 224pp

9781479830329 HB £32.00

New York University Press

Demonstrates that multiracials face the same types of discrimination as other racial groups. Hernández argues that multiracial people are primarily targeted for discrimination due to their non-whiteness, demonstrating how cases of discrimination against multiracials highlight the need to support existing legal structures and traditional civil rights laws.

Must We Defend Nazis?

Why the First Amendment Should Not Protect Hate Speech and White Supremacy

JEAN STEFANCIC & RICHARD DELGADO

January 2018 176pp

9781479857838 PB £11.99

9781479887712 HB £74.00

New York University Press

Calls for a system of free speech that takes into account the harms that hate speech can inflict upon disempowered, marginalized people. Putting aside clichés that clutter First Amendment thinking, the book offers a concise, nuanced argument against total, unchecked freedom of speech.

Reimagining Equality

A New Deal for Children of Color

NANCY E. DOWD

June 2018 256pp

9781479893355 HB £32.00

New York University Press

Examines the disproportionate inequalities faced by children of color by tracing the life course of black boys from birth to age 18 to create an affirmative system of rights and support for all children. Concludes with a comprehensive set of policies to dismantle what harms children, and maximize their development.
