Citizenship, Conjugal Relationships, and Canadian Immigration Policy

MEGAN GAUCHER

November 2018 244pp

9780774836432 £24.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

What is family? Citing national security and societal welfare, the Harper government adopted a strict definition of family to limit access to citizenship for certain immigrants. Megan Gaucher analyzes the government's assessment of sexual-minority refugee claimants' relationship history, common-law and married spousal sponsorship applications, and marriage fraud, concluding that this narrative of citizenship reinforces racialized, gendered, and sexualized assumptions about the "Canadian family." As many Western governments ponder more restrictive immigration policies, A Family Matter offers a timely examination of the Canadian approach and proposes a course for re-evaluating how family is defined and for implementing fairer assessments of immigrants and refugees. A Family Matter will appeal to researchers, scholars, and students of Canadian politics, public policy, gender studies, legal studies, and immigration and refugee studies. Policy analysts, public officials, community activists, immigration law experts, and immigrant service providers will also find it illuminating.

Abortion

History, Politics, and Reproductive Justice after Morgentaler

SHANNON STETTNER,

KRISTIN BURNETT & TRAVIS HAY

July 2018 384pp

9780774835749 £26.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

When Henry Morgentaler, Canada's best-known abortion rights advocate, died in 2013, activists and scholars began to reassess the state of abortion in the country. In this volume, some of Canada's foremost researchers challenge current thinking about abortion by revealing the discrepancy between what Canadians believe the law to be after the 1988 Morgentaler decision and what people are experiencing on the ground. Showcasing new theoretical frameworks and approaches from law, history, medicine, women's studies, and political science, these timely essays reveal the diversity of abortion experiences across the country, past and present, and make a case for shifting the debate from abortion rights to reproductive justice.

Beyond the Noise of Solemn Assemblies

The Protestant Ethic and the Quest for Social Justice in Canada

RICHARD ALLEN

December 2018 344pp

9780773555044 £77.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Since the 1970s Richard Allen's scholarship on the social gospel has broken new ground in the field of Canadian social and religious history by recovering key aspects of the tradition and its contribution to reform movements and politics. Beyond the Noise of Solemn Assemblies collects and extends many of his classic works to present a comprehensive overview of a major thread in the fabric of the country. Observing the mutual foundations of political and religious traditions in myth and arguing that the sacred and the secular belong together in discussions of public affairs, Allen contests the view that religion is personal and isolated from the public square. He discusses a range of topics: the transition from providential to progressive thought in nineteenth-century Canada; the new spirituality of social solidarity articulated by Winnipeg college students in the 1890s; the role of the social gospel in pioneering urban reform; farmers and workers finding in radical Christianity legitimation for political revolt; Christian intellectuals in the 1930s framing a revolutionary prospectus for Depression-era Canada and more.

Breaking News?

Politics, Journalism, and Infotainment on Quebec Television

FRÉDÉRICK BASTIEN

TRANSLATED BY KÄTHE ROTH

Communication, Strategy, and Politics

August 2018 236pp 7 charts, 1 table

9780774836838 £24.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

In the thousand-channel universe, politicians must find innovative ways to reach citizens via television. Viewership for news and current affairs television programs has dropped dramatically. Meanwhile, the rise of programming that blends information with entertainment – infotainment – on French Canadian television has provided new opportunities for today's politicians. Breaking News? traces the development of infotainment and exposes the impact of these kinds of programs on modern political communication. Though not without its controversies, infotainment ultimately makes a positive contribution to democratic life by piquing the audience's interest in public affairs and motivating it to pay more attention to political news in general.

9780773554832 £22.99 PB

9780773554825 £84.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Through poignant accounts of lived experiences and sociopolitical context, Burghardt adds to a growing body of work addressing Canada's treatment of historically marginalized peoples. She exposes the consequences of policy based on socio-political constructions of disability and difference, and of institutionalization.

Buying Happiness

The Emergence of Consumer Consciousness in English Canada

BETTINA LIVERANT

November 2018 288pp 10 illus.

9780774835145 £28.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

Explores the way that key public thinkers represented, conceptualized, and institutionalized new ideas about consumption in Canada. Liverant's fresh approach connects the emergence and diffusion of these new ideas with changes in political processes and social policy.

Canada and the Ethics of Constitutionalism

Identity, Destiny, and Constitutional Faith

SAMUEL V. LASELVA

December 2018 368pp

9780773555310 £26.99 PB

9780773555303 £92.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Argues that, in order to understand the old Canada of Confederation and the new one that followed the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, it is necessary to see how distinctive Canadian constitutionalism is and how that distinctiveness does not depend on borrowings from the British or American constitutional models.

Detained

Islamic Fundamentalist Extremism and the War on Terror in Canada

DANIEL LIVERMORE

October 2018 328pp

9780773555099 £26.99 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Through a gripping blend of memoir and meticulous research, Livermore urges a more mature and rational discussion of security and intelligence issues in Canada and greater understanding of the failures of security cooperation in the decade after 9/11, analyzing the emergence of Islamic fundamentalist extremism and its Canadian implications.

Divided Province

Ontario Politics in the Age of Neoliberalism

GREG ALBO & BRYAN M. EVANS

December 2018 608pp

9780773554740 £26.99 PB

9780773554733 £92.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

The first to offer a comprehensive critical account of neoliberalism in Ontario, this book overturns conventional readings of the Ontario politics and suggests that building a more democratic and egalitarian alternative to the current orthodoxy requires nothing less than a radical rupture from existing policies and political alliances.

Enforcing Exclusion

Precarious Migrants and the Law in Canada

SARAH MARSDEN

Law and Society

August 2018 224pp

9780774837736 £69.00 HB

UBC PRESS

Through interviews with migrants and their advocates, Marsden shows that people with precarious migration status face barriers in law, affecting their ability to address adverse working conditions and their access to institutions such as hospitals and schools. Marsden questions the adequacy of human rights-based responses in addressing these forms of exclusion.

Equivocal City

French and English Novels of Postwar Montreal

9780773554962 £26.99 PB

9780773554955 £84.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

In the first comprehensive history of Quebec tourism promotion and travel writing, Neatby explores shifting promotional priorities for tourism and travel writers' varying reactions over the course of four decades. Neatby reveals how differing cultural and national identities shaped tourists' expectations and reactions to the province.

Health Care and the Charter

Legal Mobilization and Policy Change in Canada

CHRISTOPHER P. MANFREDI & ANTONIA MAIONI
Law and Society
July 2018 180pp
9780774835541 £20.99 NIP
UBC PRESS

Explores the systematic use of Charter litigation in the area of health care and the impact of the resulting judicial decisions, examining three of the most controversial Supreme Court decisions in recent years: Eldridge (1997), Auton (2004) and Chaouilli (2005). The book explores thoroughly the processes and outcomes of these cases.

Ladies, Upstairs!

My Life in Politics and After

MONIQUE BÉGIN
January 2019 504pp
9780773555228 £26.99 HB
MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Offering a revealing glimpse into the pervading sexism of Canadian public life, this book details the experiences of a feisty, candid outsider who, through fortitude, intelligence, and hard work, became minister of health and welfare, a university dean, a sought-after member for commissions of inquiry, and an international expert on public health.

Literary Impostors

Canadian Autofiction of the Early Twentieth Century

ROSMARIN HEIDENREICH
August 2018 352pp
9780773554542 £28.99 PB
9780773554535 £96.00 HB
MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Examining instances of Canadian writers who faked their identities, Heidenreich argues that their imposture was not fraudulent in the usual sense: these writers forged new identities to become who they felt they really were. In an age of proliferating cyber identities and controversial claims to ancestry, this book raises timely questions involving race, migrancy and gender.

Lived Fictions

Unity and Exclusion in Canadian Politics

JOHN GRANT
September 2018 304pp
9780774836487 £28.99 NIP
UBC PRESS

Explores how desire for political unity generates a collective commitment to certain lived fictions that shape our understanding of political legitimacy and responsibility. Canada promises unity through a range of policies, but Grant documents the historical failure of these promises, elaborating the radical institutional and intellectual changes needed to overcome them.

Minority Languages, National Languages, and Official Language Policies

GILLIAN LANE-MERCIER, DENISE MERKLE & JANE KOUSTAS
December 2018 344pp

9780773554917 £26.99 PB
9780773554900 £84.00 HB
MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Drawing on social and political perspectives and methodologies, this book brings rural and agricultural history into conversation with colonial political economy. Dechêne shows that the grain economy in New France was hypercentralized and government measures were increasingly harsh, revealing the operation of political power in a colonial setting.

Reassessing the Rogue Tory

Canadian Foreign Relations in the Diefenbaker Era

JANICE CAVELL & RYAN M. TOUHEY

October 2018 288pp
9780774838139 £69.00 HB

UBC PRESS

Written by leading scholars mining new archival resources, this book provides a fresh assessment of foreign policy in the Diefenbaker era to determine whether its failures can be attributed to the prime minister's personality traits, particularly his indecisiveness, or to broader shifts in world affairs.

Representation in Action

Canadian MPs in the Constituencies

ROYCE KOOP, HEATHER BASTEDO & KELLY BLIDOOK

July 2018 248pp 1 diagram, 11 maps, 3 tables

9780774836982 £27.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

Challenges the view that Canadian members of parliament are powerless and shows that the ways they represent their constituents are as diverse as Canada itself. Drawing on original observational and interview research and featuring in-depth case studies, this is the first book using intensive participant-observation methods to study Canadian MPs and representation.

Resisting Rights

Canada and the International Bill of Rights, 1947-76

JENNIFER TUNNICLIFFE

Law and Society
October 2018 256pp

9780774838184 £69.00 HB

UBC PRESS

Explores how developments in international relations and evolving cultural attitudes within Canadian society created pressure on the federal government to overcome its initial reluctance to be bound by international human rights law. Tunnicliffe debunks the myth that Canada has been at the forefront of international human rights policy since its inception.

Strategic Friends

Canada-Ukraine Relations from Independence to the Euromaidan

BOHDAN S. KORDAN
