UBC PRESS

What has it meant to be a man in Canada? Percy Nobbs, architect, fisherman, fencer; Andy Paull, residential school survivor and athlete; Yves Charbonneau, jazz musician and commune member; "James," black and gay in postwar Windsor. Who were these men, and how did they identify as masculine?

Populated with figures both well known and unknown, Making Men, Making History reveals the dissonance between ideals of manhood and masculinity and the everyday lives of Canadian men and boys. In this collection, Peter Gossage and Robert Rutherford showcase some of the best new work in masculinity studies, exploring these themes entirely in Canadian historical settings. The first published collection devoted entirely to historical studies of Canadian masculinity, Making Men, Making History pushes the boundaries of what it has meant to be a man in Canada.

Political Elites in Canada

Power and Influence in Instantaneous Times

Communication, Strategy, and Politics
March 2019 340pp 8 charts, 20 tables
9780774837941 £31.00 NIP

UBC PRESS

Political Elites in Canada offers a timely look at Canadian political power brokers and how they are adapting to a fast-paced digital media environment. Elite power structures are changing worldwide, with traditional influencers losing authority over prevailing social, economic, and political structures. In this new volume, the editors — Alex Marland, Thierry Giasson and Andrea Lawlor— explore the changing landscape for power brokers, the ascent of new elites, and how they are using digital communication to connect with Canadians in unprecedented ways. This is a must-read for those who care about the future of democracy in a world where the political elites continue to clash with the new populism in an ever-changing and dynamic political environment. Featuring studies of governmental decision makers in the public service and non-governmental influence brokers, such as social media commentators, this collection is a much-needed synthesis of elite politics in Canada.

Putting Family First

Migration and Integration in Canada

EDITED BY HARALD BAUDER

May 2019 288pp 5 figures

9780774861267 £74.00 HB

UBC PRESS

When migrants reach their new home, we often interpret their settlement and integration as an individual process driven largely by the labour market. But family plays a crucial role. The contributors to Putting Family First investigate the experience of immigrant families settling in the Greater Toronto area, from newcomers' initial reception to their deep involvement in and attachment to their receiving society. Contributors explore such themes as the policy environment, children and youth, gender, labour markets and work, and community supports in order to illustrate how the family context can be mobilized to facilitate the successful integration of newcomers into their newly adopted home and country. Putting Family First contributes a fresh perspective in a crowded academic field.

When the field of Canadian history underwent major shifts in the 1990s, international history became marginalized and the focus turned away from foreign affairs. Over the past decade, however, the study of Canada and the world has been revitalized. Undiplomatic History charts these changes, bringing together leading and emerging historians of Canadian international and transnational relations to take stock of recent developments and to outline the course of future research. Following global trends in the wider historiography, contributors explore new lenses of historical analysis and emphasize the relevance of non-state actors. The essays in this volume challenge old ways of thinking and showcase how an exciting new generation of historians are asking novel questions about Canadians' interactions with people and places beyond the country's borders. Undiplomatic History maps out a path toward a vibrant and inclusive understanding of what constitutes Canadian foreign policy in an age of global connectivity.

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Analyzing the connections between anti-Catholicism and national identity in English Canada, Examines the consistency of anti-Catholic tropes in the discourses of leading figures, how equating Protestantism with democracy and individualism permeated ideas of national identity and how it continues to define Canada into the twenty-first century.

Nothing to Write Home About

British Family Correspondence and the Settler Colonial Everyday in British Columbia

LAURA ISHIGURO

March 2019 372pp

9780774838436 £74.00 HB

UBC PRESS

This book uncovers the significance of British family correspondence sent between the United Kingdom and British Columbia between 1858 and 1914. Ishiguro draws on thousands of letters to highlight the critical role they played in laying the foundations of a powerful settler order that continues to structure the province today.

One Hundred Years of Struggle

The History of Women and the Vote in Canada

JOAN SANGSTER

Women's Suffrage and the Struggle for Democracy

November 2018 328pp 35 b&w photos

9780774835343 £19.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

Sangster looks beyond the rhetoric of anniversary celebrations of women winning the vote in 1918 and offers a more inclusive story for a new generation to show that the struggle for equality included gains and losses, inclusions and exclusions, depending on a woman's race, class, and location within the nation.

Ours by Every Law of Right and Justice

Women and the Vote in the Prairie Provinces

SARAH CARTER

Women's Suffrage and the Struggle for Democracy

July 2019 272pp 25 b&w photos

9780774861878 £24.99 HB

UBC PRESS

Many of Canada's most famous suffragists lived and campaigned in the Prairie provinces. Although they petitioned for the vote, they often approved of that same right being denied to "foreigners" and Indigenous peoples. This powerful book shows that the right to vote meant different things to different people.

Provincial Battles, National Prize?

Elections in a Federal State

LAURA B. STEPHENSON,

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

This book traces the as-yet-untold story of political action at museums in Canada from the early twentieth century to the present, looking at how museums do or do not archive protest ephemera and examining a range of responses to actions taking place at their thresholds, from active encouragement to belligerent dismissal.

The Canadian Party System

An Analytic History

RICHARD JOHNSTON

November 2018 336pp 55 figures, 15 tables

9780774836081 £31.00 NIP

UBC PRESS

The Canadian party system is a deviant case among the Anglo-American democracies. Unruly and inscrutable, it is a system that defies logic and classification – until now. Johnston's findings shed light on the main puzzles of the Canadian case, while contesting the received wisdom of the comparative study of democratic systems elsewhere.

The Terrific Engine

Income Taxation and the Modernization of the Canadian Political Imaginary

DAVID TOUGH

January 2019 200pp 3 b&w photos, 7 illus.

9780774836784 £28.99 NIP UBC PRESS

Examines how income taxation modernized political language in the early-twentieth century, controversially arguing that income taxation was established by popular demand, first to replace existing taxes and then to address income inequality. In establishing a clear basis for party differences, income taxation made elections significantly more democratic.

The Transcultural Streams of Chinese Canadian Identities

Contributors investigate the uses of digital media within political movements and action. Original and timely, this interdisciplinary volume lays robust theoretical and methodological foundations for the study of transformative trends in Canadian political communication.

Recent Highlights

A Family Matter

Citizenship, Conjugal Relationships, and Canadian Immigration Policy

MEGAN GAUCHER

November 2018 244pp

9780774836432 £25.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

As many Western governments ponder more restrictive immigration policies, this book offers a timely examination of the Harper government's strict definition of family and proposes a course for re-evaluating how family is defined and implementing fairer assessments of immigrants and refugees.

Breaking News?

Politics, Journalism, and Infotainment on Quebec Television

FRÉDÉRIK BASTIEN

TRANSLATED BY KÄTHE ROTH

Communication, Strategy, and Politics

August 2018 236pp 7 charts, 1 table

9780774836838 £25.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

Traces the development of infotainment and explores the impact of these kinds of programs on modern political communication. Though not without its controversies, infotainment ultimately makes a positive contribution to democratic life by piquing the audience's interest in public affairs and motivating it to pay more attention to political news.

Buying Happiness

The Emergence of Consumer Consciousness in English Canada

BETTINA LIVERANT

November 2018 288pp 10 illus.

9780774835145 £31.00 NIP

UBC PRESS

Explores the way that key public thinkers represented, conceptualized, and institutionalized new ideas about consumption in Canada. Liverant's fresh approach connects the emergence and diffusion of these new ideas with changes in political processes and social policy.

Canada and the Ethics of Constitutionalism

Identity, Destiny, and Constitutional Faith

SAMUEL V. LASELVA

December 2018 368pp

9780773555310 £27.99 PB

9780773555303 £99.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Argues that, in order to understand the old Canada of Confederation and the new one that followed the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, it is necessary to see how distinctive Canadian constitutionalism is and how that distinctiveness does not depend on borrowings from the British or American constitutional models.

Enforcing Exclusion

Precarious Migrants and the Law in Canada

SARAH MARSDEN

Law and Society

August 2018 224pp

9780774837736 £74.00 HB

UBC PRESS

Through interviews with migrants and their advocates, Marsden shows that people with precarious migration status face barriers in law, affecting their ability to address adverse working conditions and their access to institutions such as hospitals and schools. Marsden questions the adequacy of human rights-based responses in addressing these forms of exclusion.

Literary Impostors

Canadian Autofiction of the Early Twentieth Century

ROSMARIN HEIDENREICH

August 2018 352pp

9780773554542 £31.00 PB

9780773554535 £103.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Examining instances of Canadian writers who faked their identities, Heidenreich argues that their imposture was not fraudulent in the usual sense: these writers forged new identities to become who they felt they really were. In an age of proliferating cyber identities and controversial claims to ancestry, this book raises timely questions involving race, migrancy and gender.

Lived Fictions

Unity and Exclusion in Canadian Politics

JOHN GRANT

September 2018 304pp

9780774836487 £31.00 NIP

UBC PRESS

Explores how desire for political unity generates a collective commitment to certain lived fictions that shape our understanding of political legitimacy and responsibility. Canada promises unity through a range of policies, but Grant documents the historical failure of these promises, elaborating the radical institutional and intellectual changes needed to overcome them.

Minority Languages, National Languages, and Official Language Policies

EDITED BY GILLIAN LANE-MERCIER,

DENISE MERKLE & JANE KOUSTAS

December 2018 344pp

9780773554948 £31.00 PB

9780773554931 £99.00 HB

MCGILL-QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS

Examines the principles, theory, intentions, and outcomes of official policies of multilingualism at the city, regional, and national levels through international case studies. The eleven chapters bring to the fore the many paradoxes that underlie the concept of diversity, lived experiences of and attitudes toward linguistic and cultural diversity.

Representation in Action

Canadian MPs in the Constituencies

ROYCE KOOP, HEATHER BASTEDO &

KELLY BLIDOOK

July 2018 248pp 1 diagram, 11 maps,

3 tables

9780774836982 £28.99 NIP

UBC PRESS

Challenges the view that Canadian members of parliament are powerless and shows that the ways they represent their constituents are as diverse as Canada itself. Drawing on original observational and interview research and featuring in-depth case studies, this is the first book using intensive participant-observation methods to study Canadian MPs and representation.

Trudeaumania

PAUL LITT

October 2018 424pp 46 b&w photos,

12 cartoons

9780774834056 £25.99 NIP

Traces what happened when the fabled spirit of the sixties met the excitement of the Centennial and Expo 67. Canadians wanted to modernize and differentiate their nation from the US, and defuse Quebec separatism. This marked a passionate quest for a new Canada, defining the values of Canadians for decades to come.
